

Concerts Costa Blanca presents, in association with the Palau de les Arts Reina Sofía (Valencia Opera)

VALENCIA OPERA SEASON 2015 / 2016

The opera season has been announced and can be seen at :
http://www.lesarts.com/docs/repositorio/es_ES/pdf/2015-2016/temporada_2015-2016_.pdf

PLEASE NOTE: The administration has announced, in particular, some reduction in prices and more details will follow. We will open our bookings very soon for these first two works.

Timings : Performances on Saturday will, in future, start at 19:00h and those on Sundays at 18:00h [this is most helpful to us as we return home earlier !]

The first two productions are as follows and we will soon be inviting bookings.

Note, please, the presence in LA BOHÈME of ANGEL BLUE as Mimi.

Angel Joy Blue's voice has been recognized for its shining and agile upper register, "smoky" middle register, beautiful timbre, and her ability to switch from a classical to contemporary sound. Plácido Domingo has described her as "the next Leontyne Price" < https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Angel_Blue >.

In 2009, this former beauty queen was a finalist in Operalia receiving 1st place in the Zarzuela competition, and 2nd place in the Opera competition. Those who were present in Valencia in 2010 for her magnificent Micaela (alongside Elena Garanca's Carmen and conducted by Zubin Mehta) will not have forgotten her "Je dis que rien ne m'épouvante" bringing the audience to its feet!!

Recently she was the back-stage host at the Cardiff Singer of the World Competition where she charmed viewers across the world (BBC TV4).

Please note these dates. We will soon open bookings for:
