

New shop in the Puerto

My name is Stuart Bennett and both myself and my girlfriend (Hannah Smith) are opening up a new shop in the port of Javea. To be more precise, this shop will reside where the old Xabia Bikes shop existed for over two decades (Avenida Lepanto 21).

The shop will be named Barquitos in Spanish, which in English is roughly translated as "Little Boats".

We will be stocking clothing, home ware, jewellery, accessories, gifts and much more. Being situated in the beautiful port area of Javea, the shop will have a strong nautical style associated with most products, hence the name of the shop.

Both myself and Hannah are still relatively young (27 and 22 respectively) and after struggling for work here, we decided to be bold and launch our own shop doing what we love.

I really hope this is of interest to you and your members. Our launch night is on Friday 21st June, from 7pm until 11:30pm, when we will be offering everyone a 10% discount on all items. We would love to see you all there.
