

mentioned concentration of seventy-five/eighty milligrams per litre is reduced to thirty-nine /forty-two milligrams per litre in accordance with the recommendations made and calculated in a practical study by the University of Alicante. They make a annual check and follow-up of the process in order to guarrantee a healthy environment besides the drinkable water.....THE SEAWATER IS IN A PERFECT HEALTHY STATE.